ASSIGNMENT 1: Assemble Your Team

Recruit Your Cadets

- Chat with friends and classmates about what they do with their old clothes
- You could even host a Star Trek: Starfleet Academy viewing party and score awesome swag

Configure Your Mission Site

- Find an easy, central space to achieve your climate mission
 - Your School
 - Public Library
 - Local Parks
 - Your Backyard or Garage
 - Join Locally Planned Events:
 - What about a Los Angeles Farmers Market or
 - Brooklyn Family Ultimate Camp Fair & Activity Expo on January 24, 2026 at Industry City, Brooklyn, or
 - Atlanta Designer Call: Bring Your Vision to the I Am Me Kids Runway Event on January 24, 2026 at Atlanta City Hall where designers are sought for a kids' runway show.

ASSIGNMENT 2:

Select your Mission and Help Protect Earth From Trashed Clothing

1 A Clothing Swap: Gear Up and Glow Up Your Style – Great for Cadets with Intergalactic Style.

The Mission:

Host a one-time, 3-hour swap event in a central location like a cafeteria, park, library, farmers market, or a friend's backyard or garage.

The Plan:

Have a table(s) out. Each friend can bring 5–10 clothing items, swap clothes, snap a pic, and leave what doesn't fit their vibe.

Hot Tips:

Do a fashion show and “Show Off Your Best Thrift Flip” on your socials #DoSomething #BoldlyGoGreen #StarfleetAcademy #StarTrek #ParamountPlus.

At the end, any unclaimed items are immediately bundled up and dropped off at a local charity, such as Goodwill or Dress for Success, or a designated textile recycling partner like Helpsy.

2 A Clothing Donation Drive: A “Pop-Up Community Bin”

The Mission:

Find an easy drop-off point so your friends, fellow cadets, and neighbors can drop off used clothing and textiles.

The Plan:

Get the okay to use a space for 3 hours that’s busy on a weekend morning, such as a store parking lot, local library, or a community center. Set up a folding table with a large sign “Clothing Drop-Off: All Textiles Accepted!”

Hot Tips:

Take pics, track each person’s donation, create a list of the top 5 people who brought the largest donations, and share on your socials #DoSomething #BoldlyGoGreen #StarfleetAcademy #StarTrek #ParamountPlus.

At the end, bag up all the items and drop off at a local charity, such as Goodwill or Dress for Success, or a designated textile recycling partner like Helpsy.

3 A Recycling / Upcycling Session: Reusing T-shirts – Great for Crafty Cadets

The Mission:

Collect old T-shirts, towels, and scrap fabric beforehand and during the session turn old shirts into something new.

The Plan:

Ask everyone to bring a pair of scissors and a bunch of old t-shirts. Pick an easy no-sew project and turn old t-shirts into reusable shopping bags or plant hangers.

Hot Tips:

Have a competition – which new bag is the biggest or uses the most upcycled material? Share on your socials #DoSomething #BoldlyGoGreen #StarfleetAcademy #StarTrek #ParamountPlus.

At the end, any remaining items are immediately bundled up and dropped off at a local charity, such as Goodwill, or a designated textile recycling partner, Helpsy.

ASSIGNMENT 3: Spread the Word, Cadet!

Find Other Partners On the Same Mission

- Local Elected Officials’ Offices
- Department of Sanitation – by going to the official website for your local government and look for “Sanitation,” “Public Works,” or “Waste Management” department
- Goodwill
- Dress for Success
- Helpsy

Let people know about the exciting event

- Post Flyers in your school, library, or market
- Post on your socials

■■■ ASSIGNMENT 4: Enjoy the Adventure!

Saving the climate for a stronger future galaxy can be a blast!

- Play music related to Star Trek or make Earth Day | Every Day
- If you haven't already had a viewing party, then show the new Star Trek: Starfleet Academy show at the event (Streaming January 15th on Paramount+!)
- Let everyone know about the fun on socials #DoSomething #BoldlyGoGreen #StarfleetAcademy #StarTrek #ParamountPlus.

■■■ ASSIGNMENT 5: Mission Accomplished – Report to Mission Control

- Make sure to upload your impact to Boldy Go Green to unlock your Starfleet Academy Cadet Certificate
- Send thank you notes to the organizations you worked with or the space you used
- Share how much was donated and the environmental impact
- Hear what your fellow cadets thought

"Let's Get Started – Your Future Begins Now."
